Location

Found roughly 20 minutes from the downtown district, these offices are based in a strategic part of Portland (Oregon), that is a short stroll from some fantastic shops and food outlets and offers direct access for various transit options. Whilst being primarily sought after as a business hotspot, this facility is also well placed for access to green spaces in which to spend breaks thanks to The White Oak Savanna park, which is only 290 meters from the door. Five Guys are just 670m from here and are reachable by means of a 13 minute trip by foot, serving up delicious hot dogs and burgers in next to no time which is ideal when searching for a convenient lunchtime solution. For companies and individuals that need to travel, Oregon City station is less than a 10 minute drive and the airport is no more than 21 miles by road, a journey of about 28 minutes assuming there are no delays. Bringing together great value, multiple transit options and a prestigious address in one attractive package, it would be nearly impossible to locate a more tempting place to do business in the Portland (Oregon) area.
